President's Report

On behalf of the Board of UTS Olympic I welcome the Directors, the players and the fans of the Brisbane Strikers to Leichhardt Oval this evening. I especially welcome some previous Olympic personalities now associated with the Strikers — Gary Phillips, coach Bruce Stowell, Frank Farina and Jason Polack.

I congratulate two of our players, Kris Trajanovski and Norman Tome who reached 100 and 50 games respectively last week against West Adelaide. I also welcome former Striker Chris Slater to the Club who played his first game with us last week against Marconi.

It was great to see such a large crowd at Leichhardt last Sunday. I thank the Multi-cultural HIV/AIDS Education & Support Service and all the celebrities for participating in last weeks celebrity game. A great day was had by all.

Good luck to both teams today.

Coach's Report

This evening we welcome Brisbane to Leichhardt Oval for a mid-week game. I am sure that the Strikers will be tough opposition for us with players like Frank Farina, Rob Brown and Alan Hunter all performing well this year.

I was pleased with the team's efforts last week against Marconi even though no goals were scored. It was great to play in front of so many fans and I hope you will all continue to support the team throughout the rest of the season. So far we have lost only one game in nine matches which is a great credit to the players.

The month of December is a hectic one for the team with six games in that period. Obviously it is important to have a strong and fit squad to cope with this many games. We will continue to strive hard for the club for the rest of this year and into 1996.

Mike Gibson has been guarding the goals for a long time, having played in the NSL since 1981. Mike began his NSL career with Penrith and then moved to St. George then Blacktown City and finally Olympic four years ago. Whilst at St. George he played with Olympic's current coach David Ratcliffe!

Mike has represented Australia in the Olympic Games in Seoul in 1988 where he met his hardest ever opponent, Romario from Brazil. Mike has also been a member of the Australian squad from 1985 to 1989.

Mike is confident that the team will continue to do well this season and looks forward to continuing to play for Olympic for as long as he can. All of us at Olympic wish him well.

"Straight Shooting"

With UNCLE STAVROS

A couple of months ago many critics called for UTS Olympic's "head". Now those same people who demanded to know why Olympic was not dumped from the National League are full of praise.

While the performances on the field have captured the public's imagination the hard work off the pitch is paying big dividends.

A crowd of over 11,000 for the Sydney derby against Marconi-Fairfield was a tremendous achievement. The Celebrity game to highlight AIDS awareness was a huge success although for a change no goals were scored in the main game.

Nonetheless, success on the field doesn't necessarily mean success off it. Olympics' board deserve special mention. It's always easy to criticise officials when things are going wrong and that's been Olympic's problem for years.

Sitting in the Grandstand for the first time was an eye opening experience. It's not so much the football that young people come to see, but the chance to catch up with old friends or just go out with the family out. Hopefully they will be enthralled by what happens out in the middle.

I invited a couple of "skippy" friends to the game and my good mate Skully brought along his whole family. It was the first Australian club match he had seen in 15 years.

He was impressed in many areas from the organisation once you entered the ground, to the facilities, food and beverage services and atmosphere. (The way he was going, I thought he might land a contract with Tooheys!!!)

Sadly, Olympic didn't score because his wife, Gail, must have asked me at least 20 times what happens when Olympic hits the back of the net (What a shame I didn't invite them to the South Melbourne game!!!)

Your probably wondering why I'm highlighting family friends in this column. The answer is simple. Olympic is now going beyond the "ethnic" community. The Skully family is the market Olympic must target.

The only downside was a skirmish at half-time between two fans and the fact they couldn't understand what some supporters were saying during the game. I'm sure they realise the soccer language in the stands is universal.

It's very difficult to entice Anglo-Australians to any Australian match, but when you consider that the only other sides in Sydney are in the far west, Olympic is sitting on a virtual goldmine.

Soccer Australia must try to embrace all communities. Once that happens at the top there'll be a flow on effect for all clubs. Crowds are up this season and it's so important that teams like UTS Olympic continue to deliver.

Former Brisbane Lions goalie, Jason Kearton, has finally bowed to the frustration of being number two at Everton and has asked for a transfer from the Premier League club.

Kearton moved from Queensland to Everton in 1988, but made just seven first team appearances. He has played 150 reserve team matches.

Welsh international Neville Southall is the number one and has been for 15 years, but as he gets older he just seems to get better and there are no signs he'll be retiring.

26-year-old Kearton was on the bench for the FA CUP earlier this year and he deserved a medal. He has had loan spells at Stoke, Blackpool and Notts County.

"At this stage of his career, Jason really needs first team football," Everton manager, Joe royle, said.

"Whenever he has come in he has always done well for us. Obviously we must now look at bringing another keeper in."

21-year-old Aussie Frank Talia has also made a move leaving champions, Blackburn and joining second division high flyers Swindon while Mark Bosnich continues to be in top form for Aston Villa.

Former Olyroo John Filan is with Coventry, but hasn't played lately.

Flashback 1968

by STEVE GEORGAKIS

"This was the year of the Greeks. Spiro Agnew became America's Vice-President, Aristotle Onassis married Jackie Kennedy — and Pan Hellenic finished second in the Sydney Championship."

This is how the editor of Soccer World summed up the 1968 season. It was not only a successful year for Pan Hellenic, but for Federation football. Federation yearly attendances were up 35% on the previous year. Many reasons contributed to the big crowd increase, none more so than Pan Hellenic's successful year and the presence of Greek international, Taki Loukanidas, for the last nine rounds. A total of 156,124 spectators attended Pan Hellenic's matches, while Apia attracted the next highest with 103,753.

Loukanidas' arrival was well timed. At his first training session at Wentworth Park, 1,683 supporters turned up and raised $350 for their Greek hero. Two days later he made his debut for Pan Hellenic in a Round 16 match against Yugal at Wentworth Park. The official crowd was given as 9,568, but observers estimated that there could have been as many as 15,000 spectators at the match. "Loukanidas! Loukanidas! the thousands of Pan Hellenic supporters chanted last week as their idol showed every facet of his immense talent."

In Round 17 Pan Hellenic were on top of the table. 18,180 spectators turned out to see Pan Hellenic defeat Apia 2-1 in Round 20. A loss and a draw in the last two rounds saw Pan Hellenic finish second in the championship, two points behind Hakoah. In the three semi-final round robin games Pan Hellenic attracted crowds on 18,018; 17,000; and 17,148 and won the round robin. The scores were:

	Win	Draw	Loss	Points
Pan Hellenic	2	1	—	5
Hakoah	1	1	1	3
Prague	1	1	1	3
Apia	—	1	2	1

At last Pan Hellenic was in a grand final and 22,111 spectators packed into the Sports Ground. At 3-2 in Hakoah's favour with two minutes to go Loukanidas missed an open goal from two yards out. In the ensuing play Hakoah scored to win 4-2.

On October 10th Loukanidas left for Greece, having attended a farewell party the night before that lasted until 6.00am. Loukanidas was certainly the most colourful, controversial and discussed visiting player. He ended up playing 13 matches and "never did he fail to pack the stands with the magic of his name".

Steve Georgakis played 41 games for Sydney Olympic from 1987-1990. He is currently completing his PhD at Sydney University.

Whistle Stop

by PHIL HAFEY

Last weekend the Referees National Coaching Panel met in Sydney to finalise the Level Two Inspectors' Accreditation Course. The course runs for over 30 hours, excluding assignments and video tasks, and is the next stage in the Referees Development Program undertaken by Soccer Australia. The Level One course was first conducted in 1994 and over 400 members have completed the course around the country.

Inspectors at the senior level are retired referees who spend their time assessing and coaching referees. Inspectors are appointed to all Ericsson Cup and Les Scheinflug Youth Cup fixtures and their task is to accurately assess the referee's and linesman's performances, identify areas which require attention and recommend techniques to overcome weaknesses. These inspectors have all completed the Level One Course and are regularly inserviced on current trends in refereeing including law changes and mandatory instructions.

Inspectors are required to assess many facets of the referee's performance including fitness and positioning, application of advantage, recognition of fouls, correctness of decisions, cautions and send-offs, correct timing, implementation of mandatory instructions and co-operation with linesmen. The inspector makes notes on a running sheet during the match and this forms the basis of the report. At the conclusion of the match the inspector will discuss any areas of concern with the referee and a report is then submitted.

The referees' inspector is also a coach will often spend a great deal of time with the referee discussing individual incidents and reasons for possible errors (position, angle of vision, concentration, interpretation, knowledge etc.) in much the same way as a player and his coach will sit down after a game and discuss why tackles were missed, goals were scored and chances wasted.

It should be noted that the referees and linesmen on the Les Scheinflug Youth Cup are officials who have shown the potential to progress further and they are intensively coached during the season. Just as the players in this league are learning their craft, so are the officials and it is through the inspection and coaching process that the referees and linesmen of the future will develop.

QUESTIONS:

1. From what types of kick can a goal not be scored?
2. What is the minimum number of players a team must have for the game to commence?
3. If a team commences the game with only the minimum number of players and a player leaves the field through injury, what happens?
4. Two players challenge for the ball and the Red team are awarded the throw-in. The Blue No.8 is walking away and the Red No.6 throws the ball into his back and then regains possession. What action should the referee take?

1. Place kick (kick-off), goal-kick, indirect free kick. In addition, a goal cannot be scored direct against the non-offending side from a free-kick.
2. Seven.
3. The game is abandoned.
4. Stop play, caution the Red No.6 for unsporting conduct and restart with an indirect free-kick where the ball hit the Blue No.8.
